The Muse Profiling Database, a free resource, provides information about more than 5,000 muse profiles. In the past, resources were primarily focused on English poets but since the early 2000s, there has been a rise in interest in profiles of non-English poets from around the globe. In collaboration with the Muse Profiling Database, the authors of this research paper have gathered information about more than 5,000 muse profiles for poets of English and non-English/languages. We're excited to bring this resource to the music community and hope to create a freely-accessible online resource for aspiring and established musicians. To facilitate this, the authors will crowdsource a database of profiles based on the latest Muse Profiling Database content (as per the information in this paper). We need volunteers to help cur 04aeff104c
