Riverside's Fountain Square Sells for $1.92 Million The fountain and space were appraised in February, and the purchase price was disclosed to The Press-Enterprise on Monday. The price represents a $2,269.29 monthly net income to the owner, Leslie Murphy, who also maintains the buildings, according to the Riverside County Appraisal District. "It was a very profitable deal for me, one of my better deals in years," Murphy said, referring to a variety of real estate he has owned and sold in the past. The space, at the corner of Main Street and Riverside Drive, was first envisioned as a parkette for the square back in the late 1960s
